

Regarding Low Power FM (LPFM)

K-LOVE uses the FM translator service to send its signal around the country. K-LOVE provides my family and I valuable news, information and inspiration on a daily basis. It is a completely uplifting service to our nation. Allowing LPFM stations to have a priority over existing translators would/could disrupt truly valuable and wholesome programming. All consideration should be taken to not allow any disruption of this service across our great nation.